

Suggest A Sister School

Do you know of a struggling middle/junior high school that could really benefit from having a Professor Know How Lab? We call these schools, sister schools. They often lack both the financial and community resources to fund and staff a volunteer program such as this. TLC feels that the Professor Know How Lab will have its biggest impact on the students from these schools.

In a couple of paragraphs, could you tell us a little about yourself?

Can you tell us why you feel the kids at the school you are suggesting could use a leg up?

Please provide as much information about the school as possible. It will help TLC to get started.
